Hey, just trying to figure out how much energy regen you get per point/percent of haste. I've tried looking this up, and I found 3 different answers, with 3 very different scales. 1% haste = 1 point of energy per second. 1% haste = 1% increase in energy regeneration per second. (This differs. Flux is a Mechagon mechagnome located in Bondo's Yard on Mechagon Island. She is in charge of the Charging Station. [10-60] Wanna Charge?

Gotta Pay! [10-60] Your First Charge Ain't Free! . Tell me about the Charging Station. The charging station is the big tower of power usually standin' next to. Is there a way to recharge it or do i have to just wait for the 1 energy every 6 min?

You wait. Eventually if you keep unlocking talents on the cypher, you can increase his energy regen, and also decreased the energy cost to do certain things. So eventually it won't be much of an issue. Just keep. Energy Cells are items that can be obtained from the following sources on Mechagon Island: Empty Energy Cells can be charged into these in Charging Station at Bondo's Yard. [50] Wanna Charge?
